International Postgraduate Programme Dutch & Translation

The International Postgraduate Programme Dutch & Translation is a one-year academic programme (60 ECTS credits) offering foreign students the possibility to study Dutch as a foreign language in a very intensive way and at a high level. At the same time the programme provides students with a solid introduction to translation and the use of translation tools. On successful completion of the programme, students will be awarded the International Postgraduate Certificate in Dutch & Translation.

Target group

The International Postgraduate Programme Dutch & Translation aims at students holding a Bachelor or Master degree in languages who want to further specialise in the study of the Dutch language and acquire solid translation skills.

Programme

The International Postgraduate Programme Dutch & Translation will start on 21 September 2009 and takes one academic year. The study programme consists of 3 main parts amounting to 60 ECTS credits in total.

- Dutch courses, 27 ECTS credits (compulsory courses)
- Core Courses, 18 ECTS credits (compulsory courses)
- Electives, 15 ECTS credits

The Dutch language modules are taught in Dutch whereas the core courses are taught in English. The language of instruction for the electives depends on the subject chosen.

Credit transfer from previous study programmes may be possible for some students. Applications should be addressed to the programme coordinator and are subject to approval by the Faculty of Translation Studies.
